

“NOTICE TO DEALERS WITH CERTIFICATE OF REGISTRATION EXPIRING ON 20 FEBRUARY 2024”

The Assay Office has been informed of the possible delay in obtaining a certificate of character required for the renewal of your certificate of registration as dealer in jewellery.

The Assay Office wishes to inform you that in case you have not received your certificate of character by 09 February 2024, your application for renewal of registration will be accepted provided you submit or present a receipt for application of the certificate of character at time of renewal of registration.

Upon payment of the prescribed fee for renewal of registration, your application will be processed and a certificate of registration will be issued to you.

You are reminded that you should submit the certificate of character to this office as soon as you receive it to enable us to perform a “Fit and Proper” exercise as stipulated in Regulation 6(1A) of the Jewellery (Dealer’s Registration and Transactions) Regulation 2012.”
